

Entegris, Inc. (NASDAQ:ENTG) has leased a 40,000 free-standing building at Corporate Ridge, the former Intel facility located on Garden of the Gods Road in Colorado Springs. Entegris will open an advanced technology manufacturing plant, in the building, for the production of 450mm semiconductor wafer handling products and Extreme Ultraviolet Light (EUV) reticle pods. At the new site, Entegris will develop and manufacture wafer handling products that will support the industry's move from 300 mm wafers to 450 mm wafers. With the new facility, Entegris expects to add an estimated 100 jobs in Colorado Springs over the next five years. The company currently has over 200 employees in Colorado Springs and approximately 2,900 employees worldwide. More information can be found at www.entegris.com

Corporate Ridge is a high-tech and office park developed by an investment group headed by Stuart Lichter, president of Industrial Realty Group, LLC of Downey, CA. The 1,000,000 SF property features a former Intel semi-conductor plant, class A office space and high-tech manufacturing facilities. The property is managed by Quadrelle Realty Services, LLC of Larchmont, NY. Michael Palmer of Quantum Commercial/Grubb Ellis of Colorado Springs is the leasing agent for the project.